Biographies & Backgrounds

Our Distinguished Guests

Ann Holte

Quilter and Textile Artist

Ann Holte is a seasoned quilter and textile artist based in Hummelstown, Pennsylvania, with over two decades of experience transforming fabric into timeless works of art. Known for her meticulous craftsmanship, creative vision, and dedication to the quilting community, Ann has become a respected figure in both regional and national quilting circles.

Her journey into quilting began as a personal passion, inspired by a love for traditional techniques and the stories that quilts carry through generations. Over the years, she has honed her skills in piecing, appliqué, hand quilting, and machine quilting, blending classic styles with contemporary flair.

Ann's work has been featured in local exhibits and quilt shows across Pennsylvania, where she has earned recognition for both design and technical excellence. She is an active member of several quilting guilds and has led workshops and group projects, mentoring new quilters and sharing her expertise.

Whether crafting heirloom quilts, art pieces, or community projects, Ann approaches each quilt with patience, precision, and heart. Her dedication to the craft reflects not only in the quality of her work but in the warmth and joy her quilts bring to others.

Cyndi Hershey

Quilt Industry Leader, Educator, and Creative Consultant

Cyndi Hershey is a dynamic force in the quilting world, bringing over three decades of expertise in textile design, publishing, education, and product development. A native of Pennsylvania, Cyndi's background is rooted in a strong foundation of design, having studied Interior Design with a minor in Textiles at both the Philadelphia College of Textiles and Sciences and Moore College of Art & Design.

Her journey into quilting began with the opening of **The Country Quilt Shop** in Montgomeryville, PA, which she owned and operated for 13 years. There, she developed an ambitious curriculum of over 100 quilting classes annually, establishing herself as a passionate and knowledgeable educator.

Cyndi's contributions to the industry span across major players in fabric manufacturing and publishing. From 1990 to 1998, she served as a contributing author and technical writer for Rodale Publishing's craft and sewing titles. She later became Product Manager and Design Director at P&B Textiles (2000–2008), while also freelancing as a technical editor for Martingale & Company. She is the author of **Sudoku Quilts** and **Nine by Nine**, two popular quilting titles with Martingale.

From 2008 to 2012, Cyndi served as VP of Marketing for Red Rooster Fabrics, followed by leadership roles at QT Fabrics/Cranston Textiles as Creative Manager (2012–2015) and VP of Marketing (2015–2017). Since 2017, she has operated independently through **Color & Stitch**, offering freelance product development, project design, and technical editing services to fabric companies and publishers.

Cyndi continues to share her expertise with quilting groups and guilds, offering classes on beginner quilting, appliqué (hand and machine), hand quilting, and custom topics tailored to meet specific needs. Her commitment to preserving quilting heritage is evident through her work with the **Kutztown Folk Festival**, where she consulted with the Quilt Barn from 2010 to 2021 and served as the Quilt Education & Development Director from 2021 to 2024.

With a career defined by creativity, leadership, and education, Cyndi Hershey remains a dedicated advocate for the quilting community and the evolving world of textile arts.

Maryann Templin

Quilter, Designer, and Creative Home Decor Artist

Maryann Templin has been sewing all her life, but her true passion for quilting was sparked in the late 1990s after attending her first quilt show. Captivated by the incredible variety of quilts, tools, and techniques, she quickly found herself immersed in the world of quilting—and never looked back.

For Maryann, quilting is a joyful and fulfilling creative outlet. She is especially drawn to wall hangings and small home decor projects, where she brings her love of color and design to life in unique and expressive ways. Her home is a reflection of her artistry, with eight compression bar quilt hangers and two smaller ones allowing her to rotate seasonal and holiday-themed quilts throughout the year. Even her stand mixer has festive quilted covers to match the season!

In 2012, Maryann began designing her own quilt patterns, which were first sold at The Quilted Crow. Her designs gained broader recognition in 2019 when two of her patterns were picked up by The Old Country Store. Unless otherwise noted, the quilts Maryann displays are her original creations—often featuring her favorite design themes: flowers and critters.

She continues to explore and experiment with new quilting techniques, always seeking to expand her skills and find fresh inspiration. With a delightful blend of artistry and functionality, Maryann Templin brings warmth, charm, and creativity to every stitch.

Kathy Long

Quilter, Storyteller, and Historian

Kathy Long is a lifelong quilter, storyteller, artist, and historian. She resides in Lehighton, PA with a house full of quilts, trees, and history. Kathy believes in the power of quilts to tell a story, that trees are rooted deep in the past, and one thread can stitch them together to make history.

Kathy has a passion for collecting stories to preserve our local history and telling them in a unique style all her own.

“Quilts tell a story; trees are rooted deep in the past; one thread stitches them together to make history.”
